EARLY DECISION AGREEMENT

Under the Early Decision Plan, an applicant may apply to only one institution as an Early Decision Candidate. Applicants may apply to other institutions provided that none of the applications are made under an Early Decision or an applicable Early Restrictive Action Plan. The obligation stated here and as defined by the National Association for College Admission Counseling is a commitment on the part of the applicant to withdraw any other applications and to initiate no new applications if accepted under an institution's Early Decision Plan (This commitment is binding only if the institution offers sufficient financial aid).

*Yes, I wish to be considered as an Early Decision candidate at _____
I understand that I may apply only to one institution under a binding Early Decision program and that if admitted under the Early Decision Plan, I will attend that institution (only if sufficient financial aid is offered). I further understand that if admitted to my Early Decision institution, I may not apply to other colleges or universities and must immediately withdraw applications to other colleges and universities. I further understand that it is a violation of the Early Decision Agreement for an applicant to be an Early Decision candidate at two or more institutions at the same time. The institution(s) I have applied to may discontinue my application or withdraw my offer of admission at any time if these conditions are not met.*
